I am a Consultant working across the recruitment and consulting sides of our business. I help our clients recruit the best talent the legal market has to offer and consult on strategy around wider business growth.

Before joining LTN, I worked as a white collar and investigations lawyer at Ropes & Gray and spent some time practising as one of those mythical independent legal consultants for Linklaters and various other firms.

As a Londoner, I'm passionate about connecting our clients to the most diverse pool of talented lawyers the city has to offer, as well as helping firms foster a more inclusive working environment for women and minorities.

In my spare time, I sometimes freelance as a writer/organiser of events around intersectional identity for 2nd generation minorities. When I'm not trying to put the world to rights, you can usually find me with my nose in a book, with mates or slowing everyone down in an exercise class that was clearly too advanced for me.
